★★★★★ College Chemistry Majors Favorite Christmas Gift

By B. Dale on January 12, 2007

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi

I bought this curtain sort of as a gag gift for my daughter who is a college freshman majoring in chemistry. I thought it would be funny and over in about an hour. No way, she loves this thing and plans to use it as a wall hanging in her dorm room "I'm not putting that in the shower, you won't be able to see all the elements". It is made of sturdy vinyl (not the thin cheap stuff) with a complete and totally accurate periodic table. Well worth the price!!!!!!

★★★★★ Periodic Table Shower Curtain

By Curie Gift on January 28, 2007

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi

The shower curtain is lightweight but sturdy and is up to date. It includes the elements all the way up to #111(Roentgenium). Delivery was very prompt.

★★★★★ A new use for the Bathroom

By Rachel on September 26, 2011

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi

Do you like to learn while you relieve yourself? Do you like bright colors? Are you terrible (or perhaps obsessed) with chemistry and want a little help with a side of pizzazz? Well the amazing periodic table shower curtain will help you to practice and enjoy all of these possibilities!

As a chemistry student, I have walked into my bathroom many times while working on chemistry homework! This periodic table not only tabulates all of the elements you will need (in beautiful bold letters), but it also names each element's state (liquid, gas, solid, radioactive), its atomic mass and number, each chemical's name and symbol and more (including which elements are metalloids or transition metals and so on). This shower curtain even has common conversions on the bottom! It includes length, mass, volume, time and temperature conversions. The information and tables in chemistry textbooks (and even the cheat sheets) is sadly lacking in some of these conversions and details about elements.

This item is not only a commendable choice of shower curtain because of its data, but also because of its visual appeal. It is not a boring chemistry chart- It is a colorful piece of artwork that will say "What's up! How ya doin'!" when you enter your bathroom every day. With various colors, it's easy to coordinate it with other items in your bathroom. Black and white shades correlate with the table easily. Blue, yellow, pink, any color is much more interesting when it matches a few elements on your table!

This is also one of the best prices you will find as most other sites will offer it for more than $30 and many sites do not have them in stock. So what are you waiting for? This item could be out of stock here within an hour (or 0.04 days according to my shower curtain...or 0.006 weeks...or 0.001 months).

★★★★★ Perfect addition to the geek-theme bathroom!

By Blokkenstock on January 9, 2012

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi | Verified Purchase

My fiance and I bought this brand new shower curtain for our geek-themed guest bathroom and it looks amazing! We found it originally on ThinkGeek.com, after seeing it on "The Big Bang Theory", but they never had it in stock! I felt a little hesitant to buy it off Amazon because I wasn't certain if this would be the precise curtain-- but to my delight it was! This shower curtain is the perfect addition and it pulls all the bathroom decor together brilliantly. The shipping was remarkably fast, even for the slowest delivery time. I would definitely recommend this product to anybody. :)

★★★☆☆ Good idea but flawed

By B. Lavery on January 15, 2007

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi

It's a great concept and nicely executed except for one thing. The curtain itself is printed on an ultra thin, ultra light vinyl that doesn't hang properly. In my shower, at least, when the water's running it waves like a flag in the wind, clinging to my body and being a nuisance. Get yourself a plastic liner if you plan to buy this curtain.

★★★★★ Now Spending Time In The Bathroom Is A Learning Experience

By Jacob Oneal on January 7, 2008

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi

I am a nerd. I love being a nerd and would gladly shout it from the rooftops except that I have no roof access at my apartment. I ordered this as a birthday present to myself and was not disappointed. It is well manufactured and now I needn't bring reading material to the bathroom with me. It's the perfect shower curtain for a nerd (and I mean in the kindest sense).

★★★★★ A BIG HIT ON CAMPUS!

I ordered this for my daughter's "Johnny Stall" at her college dorm. It brought out plenty of positive comments!

★★★★☆ Good present

By Outdoor Male on January 4, 2013

Size: 71" X 71" | Color: Multi | Verified Purchase

Bought this for my brother for Christmas. I know some people say it is very thin, but no thinner than any other plastic shower curtain I have ever owned (Walmart brands). Also, the printing is very clear and sharp. Only reason it got 4 stars instead of 5 is because I think the price is a little high.
