NSFW - because there's still pansies in the world who are offended by lycra & ski goggles! Her name is Hillary McHighbeams, and I have no idea or cares about where it's from, or if it's a repost. I just appreciate the shit out of it...

Stop whining about having to mark a picture Mature. It isn't about who is "offended"- it's just about labeling so people get what they want

Do people not understand that things rated for NSFW are for people at work, and that the image is not safe for a work space?
