Celebrated post-rock band Ester Drang will release a new EP, "The Appearances," October 26, 2018. This release will be the band's first in 12 years.

Original members Bryce Chambers (songwriter and multi-instrumentalist) and Kyle Winner (bass) have returned for the band's reformation, with Ester Drang's signature lush, atmospheric sound bolstered by Tommy McKenzie (NET, Stardeath and White Dwarfs) and Hank Hanewinkel III (Nuns, Native Lights). The record also features contributions from James McAllister (founding member of Ester Drang, who has gone on to work with Sufjan Stevens, St. Vincent, the National, etc.) and Nathan Price of BRONCHO.

"The Appearances" is a half hour of the expansive, effects-laden songcraft on which Ester Drang built its dedicated following, but it also demonstrates marked growth—developed over time spent in interim bands and on the road with English rock band Echo and the Bunnymen.

The EP includes "The Union", "From The Ruins", and a cover of influential shoegaze band (and former tour mates) Starflyer 59's "2nd Space Song".

 2nd Space Song is exclusive to vinyl and CD editions: NOT available digitally ***
