Some might consider Miley Cyrus out of this world, so it's only fitting that she'll appear in season five of dystopian series Black Mirror.

Brandi Cyrus, the Wrecking Ball singer's older sister, has confirmed that Miley, 26, did indeed film scenes for the acclaimed Netflix series in November.

Speaking on her Your Favourite Thing Podcast with Wells & Brandi, Miley's elder sibling reveals that she stayed with the pop star in Cape Town, South Africa recently while she filmed scenes for an episode of the upcoming season five.

According to Brandi, Marc Menchaca, who plays Russ Langmore in Ozark, was also on-set shooting the episode.

The exciting revelation comes after a marketing manager at Protea Hotels by Marriott told South African news site IOL that Miley had been 'spotted at the V&A Waterfront'.

They added: 'But it's certain that fans will be trying to figure out where she's most likely to turn up next.... Your guess is as good as mine.'

Miley will join a growing list of other notable stars to appear in standalone episodes, including Daniel Kaluuya, Leticia Wright, Jesse Plemons and Rosemarie DeWitt.

Black Mirror notoriously keeps details of their episodes under wraps so it's likely we won't know anything about Miley's appearance until season five drops on Netflix.

No doubt Miley got the acting bug as it's been a while since she last appeared on screen. Her most recent role was in Woody Allen's Amazon series Crisis In Six Screens back in 2016.

While it's not known for certain that Miley shot Black Mirror, the popstar certainly made her presence in Cape Town known after posing for photos with locals.
