The third studio album from Somerset based psychedelic rockers Sergeant Thunderhoof.

"Barely tamed, extremely hallucinogenic and beautifully overloaded all round, this lysergic rollercoaster shows that the underground cottage industry is alive and kicking. 8/10" Classic Rock Magazine

"Sergeant Thunderhoof have a sound all of their own, and it is the sound of musical genius. 10/10". Powerplay Magazine

"What immediately grabs you is the way this band hold themselves, the whole album feels and sounds totally in control, this is a band that knows exactly where they are going, and it sounds accomplished and polished throughout.". Dancing About Architecture

"Terra Solus is an absolute killer of an album from beginning to end." Taste Nation

"if you are familiar with their past work you will know to expect plenty of addictive grooviness, raucous riffage and hazy psychedelics all executed with a breath-taking level of musicianship and outstanding display of vocal dynamics and Terra Solus does not disappoint in any of those departments." Doom Charts eternal shame I still haven't seen live! Favorite track: The Tree And The Serpent.

crabsomatic To me, this is the best album on Bandcamp. It's heavy, fuzzy, doomy, chill and just all around KICK ASS. Do yourself a favor and buy their collection. It's an amazingly talented band with the coolest name in show business!
