RecordsMan Lets pray for rocanrol with universal referents, an eye for the stars above and a heart that embraces distortion, funk and laconically told narratives —while rattling with rhythms that are transgressively familiar and obsessively memorable. It's got a sort of south New Mexico/west Texas-style groove to it with plenty of hot shit solos and killer keyboards too. There is no filler, damn it! "Cicadas" slays. "Ery One Knows" will destroy your brain when played at high volumes. Favorite track: Ery One Knows.
