This is great:

German reporters ran an experiment to see what's faster:

Sending 10GB of photos via the (painfully slow) internet in the region. Or sending two horses with a DVD.

The horses won.

Daten von A nach B: Wer ist schneller - Pferd oder Internet?

In Schmallenberg-Oberkirchen hat das " WOLL -Magazin" ein ungewöhnliches Wettrennen gestartet: Wer bringt die Dateien schneller ans Ziel: ein Pferd oder ...

We spent the last four months digging into what at first seemed like a simple question:

Why are internet connections in Germany so bad?

The story took us deep into Germany's heartland — and more than once, it made me go “What the...?”

Out now:
