Enchantment

If opponent casts a Summon spell that does not match the color of one of the creatures under your control, that spell is countered unless the caster pays an additional X where X is the casting cost of the Summon spell.

 I actually like the flavor of this card, having racism depicted in a fantasy world is not a thing that should be banned. For example elder scrolls V Skyrim is VERY racist. And it's one of the best rpg games of all time. Racism in the world of tamriel is what makes the game feel alive. Argonians having to live in the docks and the cat people having to live in those caravans not allowed inside the city walls. The only problem in this card is that it depicts a real word racist group.

 It's all about appealing to the PC culture. WotC doesn't really care about values or consistency, they're only in for the money.

 WOTC should do a campaign to return that card in exchange for a special "Raised Fist" card.

We can't even have pricing data? This is like a bad Twilight Zone episode.

They appear to have "assigned" a zero value to all the naughty cards. Neat trick that.

Ragamander → Shagoth · a year ago

This is probably just a glitch. They pull pricing info from TCGplayer, which no longer lists the card.

And card kingdom listed it as a penny.
But I thought they averaged it out between them

Nah, it's pulled solely from TCG Mid. Tabernacle, for reference. View — uploads.disquscdn.com

Congratulations Wizards, you just made it so that a bunch of people can make a fortune cornering the market on some taboo cards, and now they'll be sought after more than ever. All so you could save your ass before the wrong people find out you printed them and decide WotC HQ looks particularly flammable. Pathetic.

Hopefully I can get a few now for EDH. I don't care what WotC does on banning, going to play the card.

I've got one I was already looking to sell before the announcement. I'm seeing them on ebay for 350, I'll do $300 shipped via Paypal Goods and Services. Hit me up if you're interested.
