Take a look at this sumptuous drawing by @Geoffroy_Monde. That, my friends, is Fête de Famille, a game in which you will be able to realise all the things you have repressed during a family celebration.

Fête de famille (Family gathering), our upcoming game, is announced for 2022! 🎉

Annoying siblings, flirty cousins and weird uncles, all the dysfunctional family members are invited to the party. 🍷 And it's up to you to decide how the day will unfold!

You know we wouldn't let you down. Fête De Famille is scheduled for release in early 2022. An irreverent and funny game about family celebrations, you had no idea this was the game you'd want to play next year. Check out our mood teaser.
