Hamburg (Germany)

> "Because the business is so slow, it would scare off my last customers," he tells me very honestly. "I have to create some turnover but I am losing from my profit" Ibrahim supports the president's policy despite struggling to make a profit.
>
> When asked about what he thinks the reason for the current economic situation is, Ibrahim says: "Our neighbours are jealous. This is what I think". He repeats President's Erdoğan's rhetoric of waging an independence war. It will demand time and sacrifice, a sacrifice he is prepared to make.
>
> He does not believe in an early election or the ability of the opposition parties to handle the task.
>
> Ibrahim says Erdoğan is working for the country against everyone - and he stands by him.

Ok, Ibrahim. Okay...
