During his tirade, he said: "We demand that [the West's] weapons be moved away from the border with Russia.

"[In my opinion] all nuclear weapons including French and British should be taken out of Europe entirely...

"And if all of these requirements are not met, and they will not be met, [...] then there will be just one 'sanction' left.

The ultimate option "is a preventive strike with nuclear weapons", he said.

"Or even just with strategic missiles at a training ground in Nevada.

"This is a US military training ground, there are no civilians there.

"If we (give) a two, or three day, warning, this is quite a good option.

"And a demonstration of the seriousness of our intentions."
