Tell me the strangest interaction you've had with a celebrity.

Replying to @Hipstercrite

Mine was befriending for a short stint a celebrity that was accused of murder. I won't use his name here b/c I once shared the story on my blog and someone left terrible comments that I'm sure were from him or his partner. He's very old now.

Other stranger interactions: Jeremy Irons kind of maybe flirted with me? I'm not sure if it was flirtation or he's just really nice, but he seemed very interested in talking to me though I was NO ONE.

I once pulled up at a red light next to Richard Simmons in a Chevy SSR. You never forget that sight.

Oh, and I worked for a celeb who has since been Me Too'd and no longer works much.

And I danced with Jeff Goldblum in a parking lot. I don't think of this as unique because he kind of touches and holds every person he meets, but it was a memorable experience for me.
