I am not over the fact that a gun company made a gun named the Crusader, stamped Psalm 144:1 on it, it's in such high demand that there's a 12-18 month waiting period, and we don't treat it as a call for religious terrorism.

Just... have you read about a crusade? That name means something. It's a call to Holy war and murder.

But sure the problem isn't the guns it's the lack of Christianity in society... wait.

Anyway we should be really worried about how weird people are getting about AR-15 like weapons in this country and the creepy religious language used with them.
