 Conspicuous as well as auspicious. If it were a food it would be delicious

 There's more burnt jets. Images of the whole base (before and after sides by sides) allow for an easy count even for dummies like me, and without taking any risks/guesses, I've reached 14

 Looks like shit blown up real good.
 I think The Rooskies should pack up their personal stuff, leave everything that goes Boom! behind and high tail it back to Russia proper.

 Wait until the bridge to Crimea is blown up. It is only a question when, not if.
