

Yegor Komarov is a cannibal, who hunted people in parks in St Petersburg, then killed and ate them. He was caught eating someone at a car accident, with two others. He has now been enrolled in the Wagner group to fight in Ukraine for the Ruscists.
This, #EU is next door.

Is this confirmed?

Wait, did Muscovy accuse Ukrainians of cannibalism to get ahead of this guy going to the front?

Either way, better give Ukraine more weapons. I'd like to see NATO air defense around Ukrainian cities too and some USAF strikes if the Muscovites don't leave.

I just googled him. There are multiple stories from newspapers & other media sources about his arrest by the Russian authorities & confession to cannibalism from late November of last year. It appears he is indeed a real life cannibal. I kind of wish I hadn't googled him honestly

The only thing this guy will be eating in Ukraine is lead.

And there's plenty of it.

@JardinVoltaire Is it just me or is the "gutless" option the obvious choice here?
