How often do you come across a former world leader at a fashion event? Not very often at all. But Sanna Marin is changing that.

Photo: @sannamarin/Instagram A few days ago, the ex-PM of Finland arrived at Paris Fashion Week 2023 to show her support for Victoria Beckham's runway event in the capital of France, where she also took selfies with Vogue editor-in-chief Anna Wintour, as reported by British media. The fashion icon delighted her followers - all one million of them on Instagram - with a series of pics from her Parisian trip, offering us a deeper glimpse into her impeccable style and extravagant post-office life. It's no surprise if this isn't the first time you've come across Marin. The millennial was never your "typical" prime minister during her time in the Finnish office, and she continues to pique curiosity.
