Yeah after they apparently told her to leave. That's the tactic... Tell them to leave, when they do what they're told, shoot them and claim they

She had the front wheels turned to the right and appeared to be trying to avoid him in an attempt to flee.
That officer shot at this driver with intent to kill.
This was not self defense.
He should be arrested immediately for murder.
He is a danger to the public.

All ice is a danger to everyone. Trumps secret police sent to terrorize blue states he sees as a threat. Time to remove ALL republicans that have brought this to us.

Amen. Shoot back in self defense or defense of others. END THESE GESTAPO GOONS

She didn't get a chance to shoot back. And he almost shot the other ICE agent.

"...or defense of others."

Time for ICE to worry about who's behind them, to their sides, in a 2nd story window, etc.

Stephen Miller never served on active duty. Many of us have. He can get all the force up his ass before we take his fascist head off.

She slowly reverses and tries to drive off. He shoots her in the head. She was a US citizen by all accounts, ICE had no jurisdiction over her. Murder.

AP News photo clearly shows bullet hole in windshield that, based on the firing officer's stance, indicates he was aiming for a head shot.

Indeed. I marked up a screen capture from a bystander video found in Instagram showing the firing officer's feet placement relative to the Honda Pilot's right-turned tire. He was not in any mortal peril.

So we are supposed to get out of the car for any masked man now saying "get the fuck out of the car" and trying to enter it. Yeah that's great for women.

Why didn't Minneapolis police rush the ICE killer and cuff them? Like they would and should with any other murderer

Because cops always defend their own. Duh.

The same reason cops haven't stopped anything illegal ICE has done on duty. The same reason so many cops actively help ICE quash protestors and conduct raids.

The US Government murders its own citizens, boaters on international waters and citizens based in other countries for legal reason.

At what point does the UN and ICC take action?
At what point do our elected officials take action?
At what point do we citizens take action?

@bsky.app as horrifying horrendous as this is, there is not anything "graphic" in the video.

- Heartbreaking, and totally to be expected. The horror from trump's murderous militias will worsen for the foreseeable future. Join Indivisible and resist the regime.

For anyone asking why don't all police in the UK have guns, here you go. A lot of police officers are idiots and will kill people for no good reason. How can Americans stand for this explanation from Noem?

They tell her to move. She does--she backs up. And an agent intentionally jumps in front of her as she's going forward and murders her. There was plenty of room to let her move out of the way. They chose to kill her instead.

The vehicle was pulling away, she wasn't trying to hit the ICE agent. She was trying to get away and they shot her.
