HOUSING: LOCAL COMMITMENTS FROM OUR LEADERS

Housing: local commitments from our leaders All over the world, the housing sector is facing major challenges: access to housing, building safety and quality, the energy transition, and the reduction of carbon footprint. While these issues are universal, they take different forms from one country to another. Wherever we operate, they demand local, practical, sustainable, and affordable solutions....

A CENTURY OF POSITIVE STORIES

1930

THE BEGINNING OF A LONG FAMILY STORY

In 1921, Adolphe Leroy senior opens the first “Stock Américain” in France, selling American surplus goods, in the county of Pas-de-Calais. At the time, the “Stock Américain” stores offer all manner of materials, directly to private individuals, to build and improve their homes. In the natural course of family affairs, Adolphe hands over the reins to his son, also named Adolphe Leroy, and his daughter-in-law, Rose Merlin.
