

In this era of post-materialism, where the traditional left-right divide has given way to more vibes-based politics, this test hopes to refresh the outdated policy-oriented political compass tests to be more up date with the real issues of the 2020s.

The test has 64 questions and scores you on four axes.

- Chud vs Woke: Identity politics and culture war issues.
- Techbro vs NeoLuddite: AI, crypto, biohacking, and futurism.
- Hopepilled vs Doomer: The system, conspiracies, and public revolt.
- Davos vs Dubai: Globalism and nationalism.
