Before taking the test:

Please note that this isn't a survey, and these aren't questions. They're propositions.

Propositions are a very different proposition!

To question the logic of individual ones that irritate you is to miss the point.

Some propositions are extreme, and some are moderate.

That's how we can show you whether you lean towards extremism or moderation on the Compass.

Your responses should not be overthought. Some of them are intentionally vague.

Their purpose is to trigger reactions in the mind, measuring feelings and prejudices rather than detailed opinions on policy.

All of them are necessarily biased, but we have a careful balance of biases!

This is something that most of our critics simply don't understand.

Now try the test:
